Attention: Speaker's Bureau

Dear Sir/Madam

I am interested in speaking at Berea College on the murders of President Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King. In recent years, I have done extensive research with Harold Weisberg, Prof. David Wrone and Prof. Jerry Mcknight. Mr. Weisberg is the nation's leading expert on both of these cases. Prof. Wrone and Prof. Mcknight are the leading academic researchers on these cases. I also give these men as my references. Addresses and phone numbers are available.

I would display and make available to your students several FBI documents that have been released to us under the Freedom of Information Act. I would discuss the evidence in these cases, including the status of the newly reopened case of the murder of Dr. King.

Because of my great respect for Berea College, there would be no charge for my speaking fee. If Berea College is interested, please contact this office.

This is the 35th anniversary of the death of President Kennedy and the 30th anniversary of the death of Dr. King.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

William L. Neichter

'Fine Kentuckians'

Time was whenever a highly respected and visible Louisvillian, not just politicians, died that a Courier-Journal editorial paid tribute to him or her. Evidently, this comforting tradition has gone with the Bingham home-owned management. Or why didn't your editorial writers choose to salute Major General Dillman Rash?

His 91 years spanned the 20th Century. He certainly ranks among Louisville's outstandingly honorable leaders in this century.

Yes, you ran an obituary, but no photograph.

His brain and even his brawn, in some cases, strengthened educational, recreational, military, cultural and business institutions.

His late wife, Nancy Batson Rash, and three daughters made their marks as constructive citizens, too.

Also, if you haven't recycled your newspapers of Sept. 12, look up Bob Hill's column in the Scene section. You'll be glad you did.

Thank you, Mr. Hill, for running the heart-warming tribute to Louis A. Neichter, who died Sept. 1. It was written by his son, Larry Neichter.

Starting as an assistant janitor, at age 15, at the home-owned Whayne Supply Co., Neichter advanced through the ranks to president and finally vice chairman of the board.

Let's think beauty, good thoughts, as these fine Kentuckians did, Dillman Rash and Louis A. Neichter.
